As and for its affirmative defenses to the Petitioner's assertion of entitlement to the benefits of limitation and exoneration, Travelers asserts the below. In addition to the Affirmative Defenses stated herein, Travelers reserves the right to assert any additional defenses that may become apparent during the course of discovery.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Further answering, and by way of affirmative defense, Travelers states that the Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Further answering, and by way of affirmative defense, Travelers states that it may have additional defenses to Petitioner's Complaint, which may be revealed through discovery, and, accordingly, Travelers reserves the right to assert additional defenses if appropriate.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Further answering, and by way of affirmative defense, Travelers states that Petitioner's security is improper in form under the applicable Admiralty Rules, does not include all vessels that be offending vessels under the law, and/or the security is insufficient in amount and for that reason such Complaint was not effectively or timely filed such that Petitioner's Complaint should be dismissed.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Further answering, and by way of affirmative defense, Travelers states that, in the event any money is paid by Petitioner to the surviving spouse of James Pigue and/or dependents of James Pigue, either by settlement and/or judgement and/or award, or in any other method whatsoever by which money is paid by Petitioner (or any affiliated insurance carrier) to the surviving spouse of James Pigue and/or dependents of James Pigue, related to events described in the Complaint, Travelers asserts its workers compensation subrogation lien pursuant to Section 287.150 RSMo and/or any other applicable section of the Missouri Workers Compensation Act. Furthermore, Travelers requests that the Court protect Travelers workers compensation lien to the fullest extent allowed by law.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered Petitioner's Complaint, Travelers prays that the Complaint herein for exoneration from or limitation of liability be denied; that the Court find that the allision, collision, and/or accident, and all damages, losses and expenses of any kind or nature whatsoever, resulting therefrom, were due to the fault and/or negligence of the Petitioner herein, and/or the unseaworthiness of the M/V DANNY BRADFORD, its master, crew, tow, and/or appurtenances and that the Petitioner's privity and knowledge precludes exoneration from or limitation of liability; that the Court protect Travelers workers compensation subrogation lien to the fullest extent allowed by law, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
